In grateful appreciation

- - - -"I have a special announcement at this time." How many times have students and faculty heard this statement coming over the P. A. System near the end of a class period? It is perhaps the most familiar statement uttered by Mr. Linn, our principal.

Coming to Beaver High School as principal in the fall of 1943 climaxed for Mr. Linn a long career as teacher and principal in the Beaver School System. After graduating from Grove City College in 1924 he took up duties in Monaca High School as a social studies teacher. He moved to Beaver in 1927 in the same capacity. In his first year here he also acted as Senior sponsor. After several years in the high school he was transferred to the junior high school, then located in the Ft. McIntosh Building, and stepped into the role of principal. When the depression made it necessary to close the Market St. Building and move the ninth grade to the high school—Mr. Linn came too—as assistant to the principal, Miss Mary McKinley. Several years later he was again sent to the McIntosh Building as principal where he remained until his election as high school principal in the summer of 1943. In the meantime he had continued his advanced education and had received a M. Ed. degree from the University of Pittsburgh.

During these years he has worked constantly for the betterment of the educational program, the curricula, school spirit, and every phase of high school life. Education is a very serious business with him as shown by his sincere statement of regret when a boy or girl decides to leave school before completing his high school course. Likewise he is ever on the alert to commend and congratulate those who have achieved some measure of success. Not only in Beaver but throughout the county his interest and leadership in educational advancement has been recognized by his participation in the affairs of the WPIAL; as president of the Secondary School Principals of Beaver County and by his active part in the Beaver County Schoolmen's Club for many years. Such untiring, unselfish service is typical of Mr. Linn. The citizens of Beaver, the many students who have come under his influence as teacher and principal, all owe a sincere vote of thanks to him for his many words of encouragement, his friendly advice and wise counsel through these years.

We, the class of 1953, consider it our pleasure and high privilege to dedicate this Shingas to our teacher, principal, and good friend—

MR. CHARLES S. LINN

for his many services

we dedicate our book to:

Mr. Charles S. Linn

In Appreciation

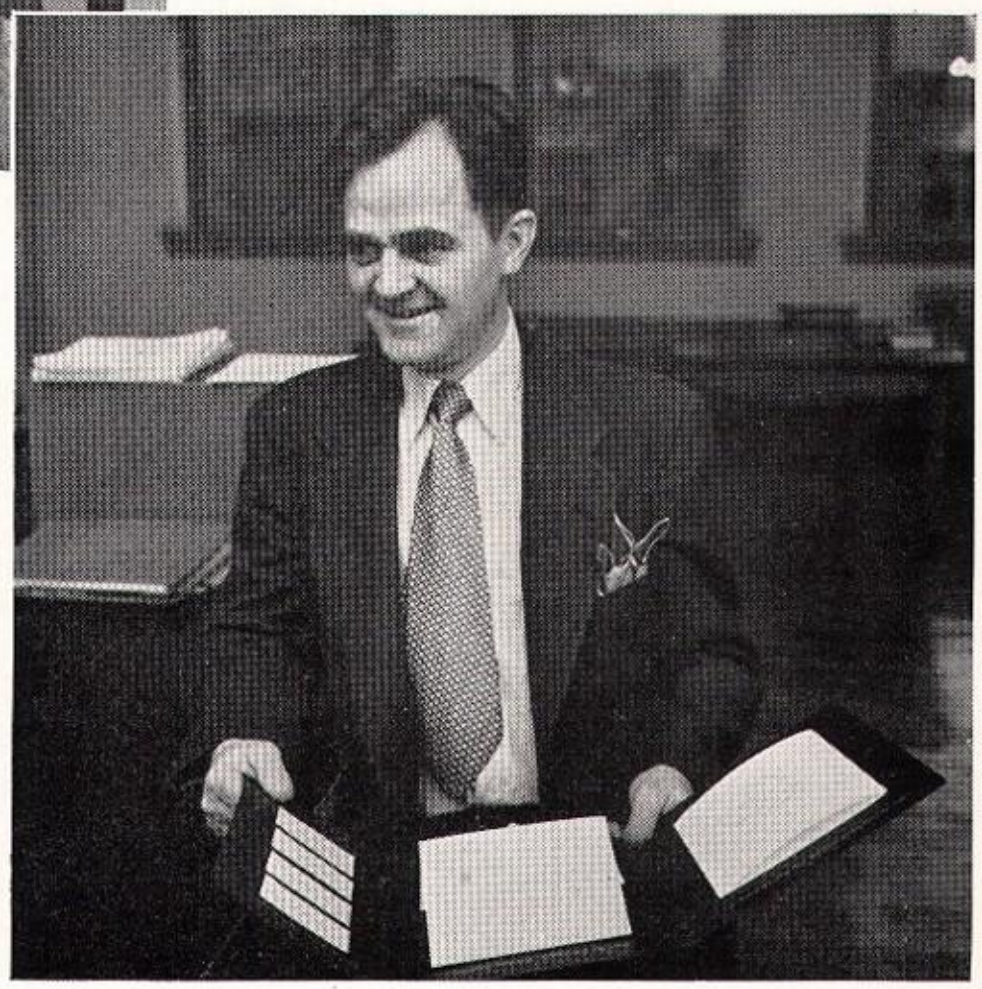
MR. WILLIAM W. PATERICK
Shingas Adviser

Mr. Paterick

Over the past thirteen years the name, W. W. Paterick, has become synonymous with the production of outstanding yearbooks in Beaver High School. It is hard to imagine editing a Shingas without his able assistance. From the first baseball picture taken in the spring until the final deadline of March fifteenth, he attends to the hundreds of details that go into the successful publishing of an annual. Because of his help and encouragement the sales staff hit a new record of nine hundred books sold this year. For handling so capably our most important project while in high school, the class of '53 says, "Thank you, Mr. Paterick, you have truly given us a lasting account of our days in B. H. S."

Mr. Charlesworth

If there is one man who deserves credit for his tireless work on behalf of the senior class, it is the sponsor. He seems to spend all of his spare time advising and enthusiastically guiding the class through its many projects and activities. Mr. Charlesworth, with his warm friendship and winning personality, has sparked our class to a successful wreath campaign, an all-out ticket sale for George Washington Slept Here, a luscious banquet, and a beautiful senior dance. He has been much more than just a sponsor; he has been a friend and associate, winning the respect and cooperation of the entire class in every project and activity. We, the class of '53, appreciate the friendly advice and wise counsel of our class sponsor, Mr. William L. Charlesworth.



MR. WILLIAM L. CHARLESWORTH
Senior Class Sponsor

BEAVER AREA JOINT SCHOOL DIRECTORS

Brighton Township: Mr. W. Reynolds, Mr. A. W. Buckley, Mr. O. Neville, Mr. W. Carnahan, Dr. A. W. Culley.

West Bridgewater Boro: Mr. R. Rader, Mrs. A. Overly, Mr. W. Thompson, Mrs. R. Hendrickson, Mr. W. Reehl.

Beaver Boro: Mr. T. Vates, Mr. C. Snitger, Mr. J. Horter, Mrs. C. Frye, Mr. R. O. Davis, Mr. R. Stout, Mr. G. Shaw, Jr.

Boro Township: Mr. J. Langsdale, Mr. C. W. Hastings, Mr. J. Kearney, Mrs. E. Krause, Mr. J. Murphy.

The school year of 1952-53 will be marked as the year of jointures. Throughout the state, as a result of recent legislation, school districts have been combining into what is referred to as Jointures, or Joint School Districts. This merely means that boards in local districts have decided to join together for cooperative efforts to improve the financial, educational and administrative functions of the entire area. From this jointure will grow, in many instances, the Union District.

The Beaver Area, comprised of Beaver and West Bridgewater Boros, Boro and Brighton Townships have now formed a Jointure. Whether this will be transformed into a Union District will be determined by a vote of the people in the future.

At present there are 22 members of the joint board—five each from West Bridgewater, Boro Township and Brighton Township, and seven from Beaver.

Officers and committee chairmen are as follows: Joseph Langsdale, President; John Horter, Vice President; Don Porter, Secretary; A. Melkerson, Treasurer.

Board Committee Chairmen: Finance, Thomas Vates; Building and Site, Dr. A. W. Culley; Maintenance, Robert W. Rader; Activities and Recreation, James Kearney; Public Relations, Charles Snitger; Policies, Charles W. Hastings; Education and Personnel, William M. Reehl; Purchasing and Supplies, A. W. Buckley; Advisory, Joseph Langsdale.

Secretary to the Joint Board
Mr. Donald Porter

Dr. C. B. McMillan, now in his third year as Superintendent of the Beaver Schools, has been very active in helping to bring about the Jointure as well as other educational improvements in our school system. We wish him continued success in his efforts to develop a more unified and better educational program.

May we also express our thanks to Miss Johnston for handling our financial accounts so capably.

Mr. Linn

Since we entered high school as sophomores, Mr. Linn has been a constant source of help in planning our school life. Now as seniors, we appreciate still more his helping us plan our futures after high school. Thank you, Mr. Linn, for your wise and considerate guidance.

Mrs. Grove

Always on hand to serve the students in whatever she can, Mrs. Grove exemplifies those two most important qualities—patience and personality. No problem of ours is ever too small to receive her consideration. For this reason we say "Thank you, Mrs. Grove, for being such a good friend to us during our high school career."

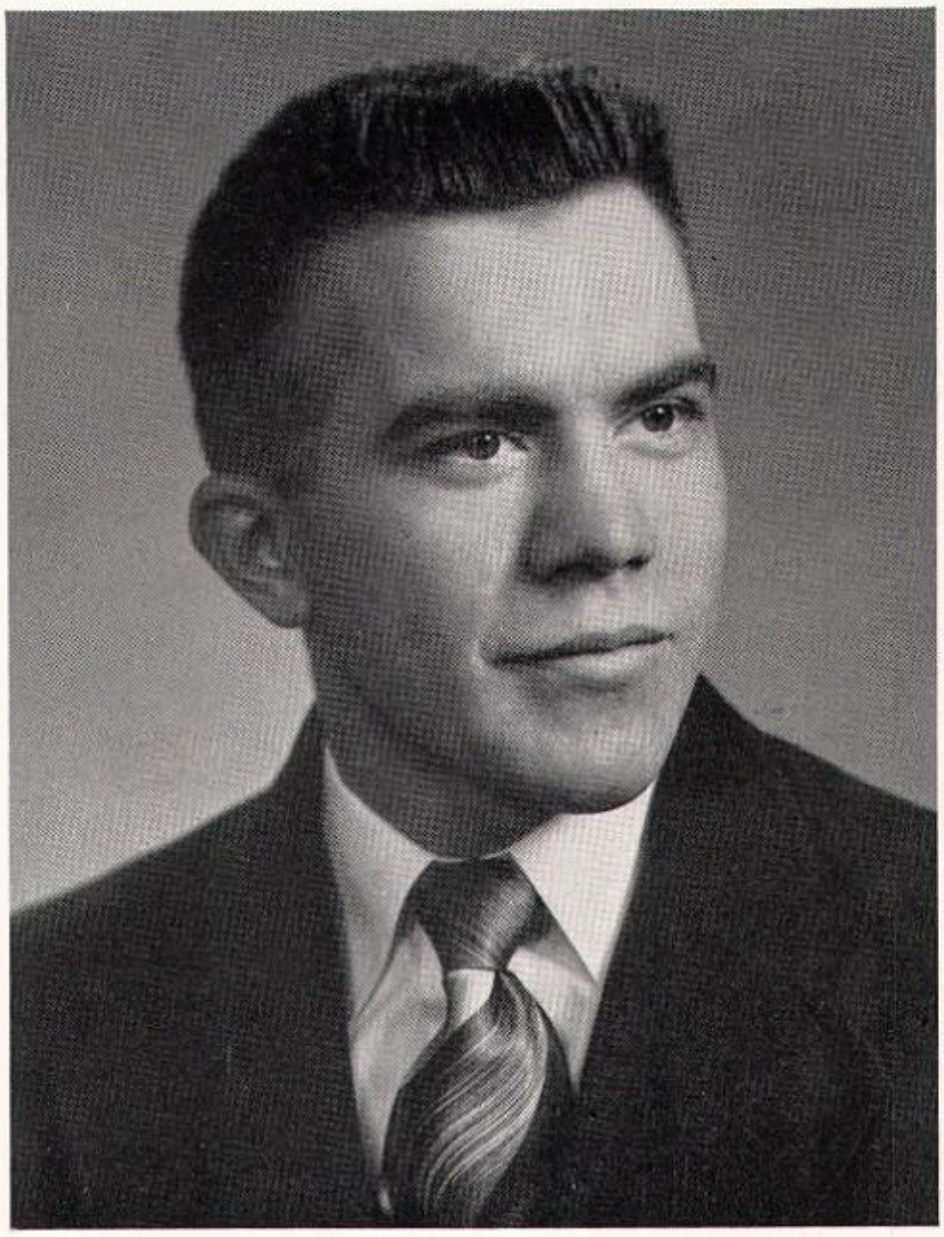
BILLY McCAIN

Born June 2, 1934

Died March 4, 1953

Billy was a member of the class of 1953. Although confined to his wheelchair by muscular dystrophy for a number of years, he had continued his studies at home and would have graduated with his class in May. The Class of 1953 sincerely regrets his passing and extends profound sympathy to his devoted family.



CARL MURRAY

Carl, a member of the Class of 1952, died last spring at a time when his class could not express appropriately its sympathy in the pages of the Shingas.

On behalf of the classes of 1952 and 1953 we would like to offer our belated tribute to the memory of our classmate and friend. The new, refrigerated drinking fountains presented by his class in honor of Carl will keep him in our memory always.

Shingas

"A SHINGAS FOR ME—IN '53". Such was the slogan of the Shingas Staff this year. With our sights set on the production of 900 books our salesmen went to work. After a slow start sales picked up and by the end of the second week our goal was in sight. To the wonderful support given us by the students in school was added the ever-increasing response by the alumni, businessmen and School Board members. Thus the class of '53 can boast the highest record ever set by any class of Beaver High.

Not to be outdone the editorial staff went to work in earnest. Picture schedules were set up, contracts signed for printing and covers, plans developed and production went into high gear. By the end of January two thirds of the book had been completed and was in the hands of the printer. By March 1 all that remained was some proof-reading. Thanks to the fine cooperation all around "our book" was ready for distribution early in May.

To the class of '54 we throw the challenge—"Beat our records—if you can!"

Echo Staff

No modern organization, club, school, or community is complete today without a newspaper or some publication.

To keep the students of B. H. S. informed concerning school affairs; to keep the community informed about activities of various high school groups the Echo Staff of 1952-53 did an outstanding job of liaison between the school and community through the pages of the Beaver Valley Times.

Appearing eight times during the year as a mimeographed paper thanks to the Office Practice class and Mr. R. G. Smith, the Echo tried not to miss a bit of gossip, sports items, club news or "all school news that's fit to print". The ninth or Senior issue was printed and included the Senior will and prophecy—highlights of the year and outstanding accomplishments of the Senior Class.

Among the noteworthy accomplishments of the Echo Staff was another fine "Heart Hop" held on Valentine's Day. The innovation added to this year's Heart Hop was a "King and Queen" of Hearts. These two were elected by the couples during intermission. A tour of the valley schools by staff members resulted in suggestions for improving the Echo in future years.

Home Economics Club

OH, boy! Smell that delicious, savory aroma of ham patties sizzling in a thick pool of pineapple juice! Who's doing the cooking? Why, that's Miss Evans, the Gas Company demonstrator, showing off her skills to the girls of the Home Economics Club. This is the only one of the many appetite-stimulating programs which this group offers.

Mrs. Auleene McElfresh, home economics teacher, is the able sponsor of this group. The officers are: president, Georgia Shaw; vice-president, Audrey McLaughlin; secretary, Verna Stuck; and treasurer, Judy Hult.

Music Appreciation Club

Music from Bach to boogie featured the lively Music Appreciation Club meetings every other Wednesday. Popularly known as the M. A. C., the club sponsored a fund-raising square dance in December and the annual trip to a musical program in Pittsburgh in the spring. Sponsor of the group, Mr. A. Murray Cornelius, worked with officers Marie Montag, president; Jim Torok, vice-president; Beth Bloom, secretary; Janet Reising, treasurer; and Nora Dambaugh, program chairman, to present interesting programs and activities for the group.

Future Teachers

The Future Teachers Club, under the direction of Mr. C. S. Linn, is one of the newest organizations in the school, formed just two years ago. The main purpose of the club is to instruct and guide the "future teachers of America." In carrying out this objective, the students enjoyed observing classes in session and discussing any question they might have with the teachers. The seniors were given the opportunity to visit and receive help from the various teachers of the Beaver School District.

Future Nurses

Although the club is made up completely of girls, anyone interested in nursing or any field of medicine is eligible to join the Future Nurses Club. Under the guidance of the school nurse, Mrs. Helen McAleer, the girls choose hospitals in which they would like to train by visiting the various hospitals in the district. Practical information and helpful guidance was offered to the girls by the many nurses who spoke at club meetings.

With Toni Trent as president, Jean Trishman as vice-president, Suzanne Frazier as secretary, and Penny Pollock as treasurer, the girls have really had a successful club.

Spanish Club

Have you ever heard of breaking the pinata or of dancing the la raspa with a handsome caballero? If you belonged to the Spanish Club you would. Not only do you become familiar with the customs of Spanish-speaking countries; but also you get a chance to use your Spanish vocabulary, shaky though it may be, at the meetings. The popular club is under the leadership of Senorita Adella Lawson, sponsor; and officers: Senor Dave Livingstone, president; Senor Ken Kirchner, vice-president; Senorita Susie Coombs, secretary; and Senorita Mary Shaw, treasurer.

Sportsmans Club

Beware all bunnies and guppies! The Beaver High Sportsmans Club is on the loose. When these fearsome hunters and fishermen get hot on the trail they show no mercy! Although formed only two years ago, the club has already created an increased interest in out-of-door sports and activities in the high school. One of the outstanding speakers was Robert Stout, well known Beaver businessman, who told the boys how to plan a hunting trip.

The Sportsmans Club was under the capable leadership of the following: Donald D. Higbee, sponsor; Ronald Bumiller, president; Richard Umstead, vice-president; Hank Feeley, secretary; and Glen Renner, treasurer.

The Camera Club

"Hold it! O. K.! Next please!"

If you attended any of the big high school dances this year, you probably saw enthusiastic Camera Club members busily snapping the pictures of all the dancing lads and lasses.

Then, too, the Camera Club's Photo Contest created quite an interest from the student body. The competition was keen and the Club members produced many outstanding photos, some of which are displayed in the Shingas.

The Camera Club takes charge of operating the movie projection machines and assists the Shingas Staff in the developing and printing of pictures to be used in the yearbook.

The officers are: president, Charles Gardner; vice-president, Bob Fisher; secretary, Janet Reising; and treasurer, Nancy Potter. Mr. Charlesworth is the sponsor of the organization.

The Tri Hi Y, one of Beaver's biggest clubs, opens its doors to all girls of the high school. The purpose of the Tri Hi Y is "to create, maintain, and extend throughout the home, school and community, high standards of Christian character." To carry out this worthy purpose are Mrs. Adelaide Burry, sponsor, and officers: Gay Barley, president; Marty McCleery, vice-president; Nora Dambaugh, secretary; Wanda Casto, treasurer; Marie Montag, chaplain; Sally McCleery, historian.

G. A. A.

Calling all girls! Would you like to earn a "Basketball", a "B", a club "emblem", just by participating in your favorite sports activities? You would? Then join the G. A. A.!

The Girls Athletic Association, sponsored by Miss Genevieve Gates, held its meetings and tournaments during the activity period each Monday and Wednesday. Soccer, played in the fall, was followed by those favorite indoor sports, ping pong, paddle tennis, and badminton. November came along and so did volley ball. The volley ball teams fought vigorously to gain the championship title at the annual volley ball tournament.

After the Christmas holiday the basketball season went into full swing. Swimming suits were taken out of moth balls and everyone "went in for a dip" at the G. A. A. swimming party that was held in New Brighton Y. M. C. A. building. Each sports event featured during the year was attended in high spirits by all the members. G. A. A. girls learn: "To appreciate is to participate".

The officers of the G. A. A. are: president, Darla Hall; vice-president, Gretchen Sohn; secretary, Jean McClure; and treasurer, Sally McClements.

Senior Science Club

Commander Reber and his "Rangers" did not communicate with outer space this year, but they did have a club to be proud of. The Senior Science Club, open to all chemistry and physics students offers an opportunity for experiment and research in these fields.

As one of their outstanding projects of the year the club visited the Westinghouse Plant in Vanport. The Westinghouse engineers might have had some expert advice in the field of science had they asked for it, however, since they did not, members of the "Live Wire" Beaver High Club were able to concentrate on learning something about the processes and products of Westinghouse. Another interesting experience was the visit to the Science Club Fair in Pittsburgh. Monthly meetings of the club were interesting not only because they provided entertaining experiments and movies, but also because of the refreshments that followed. The officers of the club are: Don Way, president; Dick Crumrine, vice president; Mary Estelle Dewitt, secretary; Sally McCleery, treasurer. Mr. Nevin W. Reber is the sponsor.

S. A. N. S.

A day in Cook's forest and a field trip to Pittsburgh with visits to the Carnegie Museum, Phipps Conservatory, and Highland Park Zoo highlighted the activities of the S.A.N.S. Club. Under the guidance of Mr. Charlesworth, the Science and Nature Study Club strives to extend and enlarge classroom learning in biology. The monthly meetings include movies, talks, and demonstrations relating to regular study. President, Dave Gifford; vice-president, Marjorie Speer; secretary, Sue Amburnsen; and treasurer, Joan Brew were the officers this year.

Bobcat Club

"Choose a partner! It Takes Two To Tango!"

Some enthusiastic Arthur Murray pupils really danced the tango at the monthly Saturday night Bobcat Dances.

In addition to the regular monthly dances the Club sponsored the dances held after the home basketball games. The annual semi-formal Christmas Dance and the Basketball Dance were the highlights of the Bobcat dance program for the year.

All of the Bobcat Dances were under the direction of the Club sponsor, Mr. Donald Higbee, and the Club officers: president, Jack Waddell; vice-president, Bill Sell; secretary, Jan Eakin; treasurer, Susie Coombs; and the co-chairmen, Nora Dambaugh and Dick Smith.

LEADERS CLUB: Back—R. Staub, S. Bixler, J. McClure, M. Shaw, D. Hall, Miss G. Gates, T. Trent. Front—G. Sohn, S. McClements, S. Coombs, G. Barley, M. Taylor, J. Hult.

Leaders Club

Especially active in the athletic department of our school is a group of junior and senior girls known as the Leaders Club. Sponsored by Miss Genevieve Gates, these twelve girls assist in the gym classes by taking the roll, checking showers, and helping the students in their gym activities.

In September the leaders attended the annual Playday which was held at the Ali quippa High School. The purpose of Playday is to give leaders of different high schools an opportunity to meet and discuss their activities for the year, and to participate in the lively athletic contests planned by the host school.

The officers of the Leaders Club are: president, Susie Coombs; secretary-treasurer, Sally McClements.

Presidents Council

Under the direction of Mr. Charles S. Linn, the Presidents Council is organized each year as a medium for discussing the activities of the high school. The council is composed of the editors, leaders, and presidents of the various high school groups. At their meetings the members of the Presidents Council have an opportunity to exchange ideas and to discuss the many problems and accomplishments of student organizations.

Student Council

The Student Council, organized for over twenty years, strives to promote and improve the worthy ideals of scholarship, citizenship, sportsmanship, and better relations between the faculty and student body. The Student Council sponsors the selling of candy at home basketball games, the annual trimming of the Christmas tree placed at the entrance of the high school, and the successful Amateur Show. The group is under the leadership of Mrs. Auleene McElfresh and Mr. Charles S. Linn. The officers of the council are: president, Robert Richards; vice-president, Ken Kirchner; and secretary-treasurer, Sarah Shaw.

The induction ceremony of the Alpha Chapter presented in February was an outstanding assembly. Presented by the eight members selected at the end of their junior year the program was very impressive. Dick Smith, the president, presided and welcomed the guests. Devotions and the pledge to the flag were led by Darla Hall and Bill Cupps. Gay Barley voiced the spirit of the group in a song entitled "Let's Sing, Let's Play, Let's Work Together."

The introduction of the four members who portrayed the four objectives of the Society was made by the president through the following:

for Service,

"All down the endless years the wheels are run
By little things. The service of life,
Small in the eyes of man but not of God."

for Leadership,

"Today, this very hour, our brave land calls
For men who have the spark of character Called Leadership."

for Character,

"When all man's earthly goods have dropped away
And he stands still and shining all above
Upon the world's bright rim for God to judge,
On some thing rests the light—his character."

for Scholarship,

"A book of gold: let this your symbol be
For scholarship, the beacon light of truth."

Bill Cupps, Althea Speerhas, Gretchen Sohn and Kathy Schneider spoke briefly on each of these subjects after which the new candidates were given the pledge.

Mr. C. S. Linn, principal of Beaver High School presented Miss Esenwein, sponsor of the Society to the assembly and guests after which he commented briefly on the selection of candidates and presented the newly elected members their certificate of membership.

Toni Trent then introduced the guest speaker for the day; Morgan H. Sohn, judge of the Court of Common Pleas, Beaver County. His excellent talk dealt with the relationship of these four qualities to life itself. He capably pointed out their importance for good citizenship. Gay Barley then entertained the audience with another song "Don't Talk to me of Spring." The members closed the program by singing the Alma Mater.

Chorus

Some people like vocal music, others like instrumental. All those who like to sing are to be found each fourth period on Monday, Wednesday, and Thursday in the Music Room, practicing many songs which are used in varied programs presented by the choruses during the year. Mr. Nelson Maurer directs their efforts. One of the highlights of the choral program is the selection of several of its outstanding singers to represent Beaver High at the Midwestern or All State Chorus. Those selected included Gay Barley, Toni Trent, Kathy Schneider, Bob Richards and Carolyn Deku.

1953 has been a milestone in the history of the Beaver High School Band. It started the year off with a bang by breaking one of its traditions; the HI formation, hailed in the 1951 Shingas as "traditional" was finally replaced by "H E L L O" formation. For a long time this had been an ambition and goal of the band, but it had had only enough musicians to make part of the word. Their other formations were the envy of the other bands in the county. Nobody will ever forget the Hawaiian show (the majorettes were dressed in hula costumes complete with grass skirts!) or the circus that the band brought to Gypsy Glenn Stadium. But perhaps the show that the band will remember most vividly is the show with the exploding tuba. In the midst of the half-time formation Joby Fisher's tuba began to act up. It skipped a beat now and then. Suddenly volumes of smoke and sparks came pouring out of the bell of the horn. Joby staggered out of formation. Drum major Jack Erath stopped the band and ran to his assistance. By this time Joby was flat on his back. Mr. Cornelius ran onto the field to see what was the matter. He motioned towards the stands. Out on the field came two majorettes with water bucket and stretcher. They put out the fire (a smoke bomb) with the water, loaded the tuba onto the stretcher, carried it off the field, and returned with a shiny new tuba. They "revived" Joby, gave him the horn and went on with the show.

However the band's activities have not been confined to the football field. When football season terminated they retired to their sound proof band room to practice for the spring festival.

Beaver sent five representatives to Midwestern Band this year. Dick Smith, James Torok, Ivan Peters, Lee McDonald, and Janice Hughes. James Torok was to represent Beaver at State Band.

The annual band banquet sponsored by the band mothers was a smashing success. Turkey and stuffing, mashed potatoes and gravy, apple pie, and milk comprised the delicious feast that highlighted the banquet. The senior, male members of the band refused all food and nourishment for three days to prepare themselves for this, their last band banquet. Most of them, however, still couldn't finish their third piece of pie.

Mr. Paterick as master of ceremonies was his usual congenial self. Mr. Cornelius made a short speech complimenting the band as being the best in the valley, and Mrs. McCleery presented letters to the juniors, and numerals and statuettes to the seniors. The beautiful music of a male quartet from Geneva finished off a perfect evening.

The Orchestra

"Music appreciation through participation" is the theme of the orchestra this year. The director, A. Murray Cornelius, has chosen a variety of music that will not only give the members experience in playing with others, but also will acquaint them with all types of music. By becoming more acquainted with all types of music, the orchestra members appreciate all types. During the year the orchestra has played for both Junior and Senior Class Plays and contributed to the success of the Music Festival.

The Organists

The organists who spend many hours practicing in order to play so well at our assemblies never have received the full recognition they deserve. They have contributed greatly to the success of our assembly programs throughout the year. The feelings of the entire student body may be expressed in these few words: "Thanks to you for a job well done."

C. Stevenson, S. Stuck, M. Linzey, W. Fuller, G. Gallio, M. J. Pitcher, E. Langaunet, S. Feibus.

Football Season

GROVE CITY

Coach Pete Kane took the wraps off his '52' football squad in the opener against Grove City. A fumble on the opening kickoff set up the first Grover touchdown. Thompson dashed over from the four yard stripe. Then on the opening of the second stanza Norm Lengyel scooped up a Grover fumble and thundered 75 yards for the tally. A safety made it 8-6 Beaver. Then in the fourth quarter Thompson again scored for the Grovers from the 12. That ended the scoring at 12-8 in favor of Grove City. Our first game lost!

MOON TOWNSHIP

Beaver entered the second game without Fritz Kirchner and Bob Richards who were injured in the Grove City tussle. Deyton of Moon, after racing 60 yards, posted the first tally on a pass. Adding the extra point, Moon players set the score at 7-0. They added another T. D. in the third quarter to make it 13-0. Campbell added two touchdowns in the final quarter and Lengyel tacked on an extra point to give Beaver a 13-13 tie. On a fake punt in the last 10 seconds of play, Moon passed and Hanson, gathering it in, galloped the whole way to make it 20-13.

HOPEWELL

In two plays after the kick-off Marovich went the whole way to make it 6-0 Hopewell. A safety added in the second stanza gave Hopewell an 8-0 lead. Early in the fourth Lengyel powered over from the two yard stripe to make it Hopewell 8, and Beaver 6, but that was all so we lost our third one.

MIDLAND

Ouch! This one really hurt. To make a sad story short Midland scored seven touchdowns and two extra points for a grand total of 44 points. Steffine posted the first Bobcat score on a romp in the third stanza. Lengyel added the extra point for our first 7. Lengyel posted another tally for our final score to make it another loss to the tune of 44-13.

NEW BRIGHTON

To add insult to injury, New Brighton romped over us with 5 touchdowns and three extra points for 33 points to our score of 0. Campbell passed the Bobcats to the New Brighton 25. Steffine, then, carried to the 14, but his fumble allowed New Brighton to recover and to end our scoring threat.

FREEDOM

After six line bucks Ciani took a handoff and roared into paydirt for the first Oiler score. The extra point try failed and Freedom had 6. Beaver drove to their opponents 29 where they fumbled and Freedom recovered to start off the fourth stanza. After a long march Golletti sneaked across for the final tally of the game. With the extra point added, the score read 13-0.

Football Banquet 1952

MONACA

Well at least we scored in this game. The Indians threw the tomahawk at us for six touchdowns and four extra points—a grand total of 40. Campbell passed to Lengyel for our first score and the score stood at 13-6. Matthews plunged over from the one yard stripe after a 72 yard drive in the last quarter. The final score stood at 40-12; seventh straight loss.

CORAOPOLIS

Cory gathered in three touchdowns and three extra points in the second, third, and fourth stanzas for a total of 21 points. Beaver tied up the score in the second stanza at 7-7 when Steffine and Campbell carried to the six and Campbell streaked around right end for the tally. This made eight straight defeats with only one chance to redeem ourselves. We kept our fingers crossed.

ROCHESTER

Well, we uncrossed our fingers now, because we lost both the game and our treasured Oaken Bucket. Rochester cashed in on 7 touchdowns and 4 extra points for 46 points. Beaver's lone touchdown came in the final stanza when Dick Hult gathered in a 19 yard pass in the end zone. The extra point was added and we had our only 7 points. The final score stood at Rams 46, Bobcats 7.

Our Seniors

Bob Richards

Center—It was Bob's spirit that kept the boys on the ball during the Grove City game until he was injured in the third quarter. Bob was a two year letterman.

Larry Farmer

End and Co-Captain of the team—Larry anchored down one end position and played fine ball on both offense and defense. He is also a two year letterman.

Frank Steffine

Fullback and Co-Captain of the team—He was noted for his hard driving smashes off tackle which consistently gained yardage.

Mike Zachodni

End—It was Mike who was the brick wall when the opponent tried to go around his end.

Dave Winborn

Tackle—Dave was plagued by injuries all year and saw very little action but when he was in the game there were no gaps in our line.

Fred Kirchner

Guard—When this boy was at guard many an enemy failed to gain yardage through his position.

Neal Mabin

Halfback—His fine punting got Beaver out of many bad situations and put the opponent back deep into the shadow of their goalpost.

Jack Waddell

Manager—Jack was right there on the field in every game with his medicine kit and towels, repairing all those injuries and bruises. His fine services were appreciated by the team.

Cheerleaders

Back—R. Leis, M. DeWitt, H. J. Bloom. Front—G. Shaw, K. Schneider (head cheerleader), S. Coombs.

Cheerleaders come and cheerleaders go, but six that we know will live long in the memory of the high school students of 1952-53. If WPIAL awards were given to cheerleaders, these six, led by Kathy Schneider, would rank at the head of the list. School spirit in Beaver High reached the highest level possible in spite of the fact that neither the football nor basketball teams were having winning seasons. The student body caught the enthusiasm of the cheerleaders in the pep meetings and supported the teams to the last whistle.

Presented at the left, below, is the awarding of the football jacket to Larry Farmer, one of the co-captains of this year's football team, by Mrs. J. A. Waddell, president of the Football Mothers, while Mr. Peter B. Kane, head coach, looks on. At the right is pictured for the first time in the Shingas the crowning of Beaver High's pretty football queen. This year's queen, Miss Georgia Shaw, is shown being crowned by Frank Steffine, co-captain, while attendant Barbara Brkich and co-captain Larry Farmer look on.

Coach Ernie Johnson's baseball Bobcats came thru with six wins and five losses last spring. Such a record does not match the records of the two previous years when Beaver won the section title, but in spirit and type of play they were in the thick of the fight to the very end. Two losses, early in the season, hurt the team to the extent that they were unable to catch New Brighton who won the championship.

Honor Group - Class of 1952

Pictured above are the members of the Class of '52 whose subject grades during their high school career were, when averaged together, high enough to place them in the top ten percent of their class. Scholastic achievement was theirs and for that we honor them as we honor all those who have in any other way brought fame or glory to Beaver High School.

Four Veterans of Beaver Schools

Pictured below are four of our high school faculty. Service and leadership are qualities which are exemplified in this group. In point of service these men have devoted almost a century to the training of young people in the Beaver School System, as well as in the community. In leadership they have given of themselves as principal and teachers, advisers, sponsors and directors of worthy projects around the school.

Mr. H. V. Mowery, Mr. C. S. Linn, Mr. N. W. Reber, Mr. W. W. Paterick.

The combined service of these four men to the Beaver School District totals 97 years.

You Can't Take It With You

An explosion in the basement, an investigation by the F. B. I., and a visit from a former Russian Countess now a waitress at Child's Restaurant were only every day occurrences to a family as eccentric as the Sycamores. Essie Sycamore took ballet lessons for years and never learned a thing, but then Boris Kolenkov, the instructor, was a friend of the family so she continued; Grandpa Vanderhof never paid his income tax because he didn't believe in it; and Penelope Sycamore tried everything from raising snakes in the living room to chiseling a statue of Mr. DePinna, the hired man. But with all their peculiarities the Sycamore family taught the wealthy, but unhappy Kirby family that life is worth living if you just let yourself go.

The senior class under the direction of Miss Alice Bartlett produced a delightful and entertaining comedy. In the cast were: Constance Kretchmar as Penelope Sycamore, Dolores Mott as Essie Sycamore, Shirley Azzarello as Rheba, Jerry Delans as Paul Sycamore, C. Williams Davis as Mr. DePinna, C. Russell Holzworth as Ed Sycamore, Jack Seaman as Donald, Thomas Garrett as Martin Vanderhof, Sally Hughes as Alice, Ralph Clinard as Henderson, Richard Doherr as Tony Kirby, Al Coune as Boris Kolenkhov, Nancy Gano as Gay Wellington, Jack Leasure as Mr. Kirby, Janet Zobrist as Mrs. Kirby, Janet Savisky as Olga, and Richard Yenni, James Forsythe, and John Shelar as the three F. B. I. men. Mary Alice Kieffer acted as student director.

Our Hearts Were Young and Gay

In the 1920's two teenage girls going on an ocean voyage to Europe—unchaperoned was unheard of. But the unpredictable Cornelia Otis Skinner and her amiable friend Emily Kimbrough did just that. The results of the adventures on board were hilarious and included: two money belts that wouldn't get lost, a slight tussle with the measles, and a "man overboard". After arriving in France the adventure never slackened for the girls, though privileged enough to sleep in the famed Cardinal Richelieu's bed, found it already occupied by bed bugs!

The juniors, under Mrs. Beulah Cook's able direction, scored a hit with their first taste of the theater. The cast included: Marianne Anderson as Cornelia Otis Skinner, Helen Jean Bloom as Emily Kimbrough, Mary DeWitt as Mrs. Skinner, Ken Kirchner as Otis Skinner, Paul Kistler as Dick Winters, John Bukey as Leo McEvoy, Mary Shaw as Harriet St. John, Sally McClements as Winifred Blaugh, Charles Farrell as Monsieur de la Croix, Richard Crumrine as the steward, Charles Saberin as the purser, Jean McClure as the stewardess, Herbert Bell as the admiral, Robert Kaszer as the inspector, Rosalie Leis as Therese, Shirley Strayer as Madame Elise, Thomas Schlosser as the window cleaner. Catherine Stevenson was the student director.

Cavalcade of America The Queen's Court

The fifteenth annual May Day was observed at Gypsy Glen Field with Her Majesty, attractive Dorothy Bankovich reigning over the gala affair. With pomp and ceremony, Queen Dorothy and her court: Maid of Honor, Dolores Mott; and Attendants, Pauline Benson, Sally Fife, Yvonne Heath, Sally Hughes, Nancy McCoy, and Doris Smith created a picturesque scene as they proceeded to the royal throne. Leading the procession were tiny flower girls: Grace Fusco, Patty Kountz, Carolyn Swager, and Amy Teapole; Crown Bearer, David Forrester; and Sceptre Bearer, William Rowse, Jr. Thomas Brown and William Shoup served as train bearers. Following the processional, Dorothy was crowned May Queen of Beaver High School.

The program, Cavalcade of America, featured the growth of different types of dancing in our country. The colonial years featured the customary Maypole dance and the Minuet; the national era was portrayed by the Texas Schottische, Blackhawk Waltz and Air de Ballet; our modern era consisted of the Charleston, and a square dance which brought the May Day to a grand finale and with the recessional, another successful May Day came to a close.

Girls' physical education instructor, Genevieve L. Gates, directed the program, the script was written by Beulah V. Cook, and the Beaver High School Band, directed by A. Murray Cornelius, provided the music.

ACT I

The truth is I'm just a nosey little notebook, named Lucinda Looseleaf, that has been tagging along with the class of "53" all through high school. They just couldn't get rid of me no matter how hard they tried. Everywhere they went I was right there too. In case you still don't get the drift, this is the way it really happened - - - - -

One late summer day when I woke up I found someone writing on my cover—B. H. S. The next day as I was carried up the steps of my new home I found out that those letters stood for Beaver High School. As my soph friends and I hunted for the right rooms we passed 213 where we heard, "Spelled forward or backward, it's Reber . . ." At the end of the first week, a tough football schedule was pasted on my cover. It really must have been tough. Final total—6 losses; 1 win; 2 ties. All over my pages were secret football plays. The players studied me from the top of my margin to my bottom line. Then I came into my glory. Patty Anzio, our lovely football queen, used me as a dance program at the soph's first big fling of the year, the Football Dance. Then I was tossed aside for two glorious weeks. Big snow . . . Enough said. On top of that, Christmas vacation came a few days later driving all thought of study from my pages. Santa brought me ten new pages and a brand new cover. I went back to school to start basketball season feeling like a new girl. My pages were soon covered with Silas Marner, sections of the earth worm, and plans for the coming Heart Hop . . . . What are they going to use me for next! There I was, carrying my pages full of notes for the spring festival . . . . The next thing I knew it was "April In Paris," and my first high school Prom. I, little Lucinda Looseleaf, was squeezed between some forgetful soph's compact and comb. Before I could quite catch my breath, I was being pushed into the soft lining of a velvet evening wrap. I really saw the world as a soph because at the Senior Dance I found myself spending the evening in a Japanese Garden. But later I had one very big disappointment. The Senior Day I had waited so long for never came. Firecrackers blew up the works . . . . Dance steps for the "United Nations" May Day were soon written on my last line of page one, thus ending my busy sophomore year and beginning my glorious summer vacation . . . .

ACT II

Lucinda Looseleaf, that's me, a junior! A middle man. Not the boss yet but still not an underclassman. I really had a big time that year . . . As mascot of the O.H.G., I fiddled while the outhouse burned at the Midland bonfire. But Midland won. We had a pretty good season though. Total—5 wins; 4 losses. We beat Rochy, 14-0, making us the first to win the Old Oaken Bucket. What a gala time that assembly was. I beamed from cover to cover as I rode down the street in the football captain's pocket . . . Back to normal but not for long. National Cat Week hit high school with a bang. Everything from heels and bow ties that light up to patched levis and cowboys . . . "Cheaper By the Dozen," our first attempt at drama was a huge success. I stood bravely by in the hands of the prompter, Carol, as the play came to its grand finale . . . Then on to basketball. We were climbing the hill to glory with only one loss, but we slid back down when Midland beat us once more. We fought our way to the top only to be beaten by Freedom in our last game. I was so mad; I almost flipped my pages. Oh well, better luck next year . . . Wasn't that jazz music I heard coming from the auditorium: It sure was. None other than the Collegians. Wasn't that trumpet player too dear for words? (Oh if he would have only noticed me, little Lucinda Looseleaf) . . . Sketches of our Junior Prom were soon scattered over my pages. Finally the big night came and from my hiding place behind the punch bowl I caught a glimpse of the "Arabian Nights." I even got a new set of rings just for the prom . . . I almost split my covers laughing at the "teachers" in the trial of the Senior assembly . . . I nearly singed my pages when I got too close to the fire in "Hades." . . . Then report cards came . . . No red marks on my pages this time. It's sure a good thing this year is over, I'll need all summer to recuperate.

ACT III

Check this cats. Big wheels at last. The seniors and I, little Lucinda, came waltzing up the stairs full of ideas on how we would run this school. Jeepers, we really started out the school year right. Assembly and then dismissal at 3 p. m. Noticed four new teachers, not at all hard on the eyes, and new fountains in honor of Carl Murray. The new fad was catty cars with Hollywood mufflers. Look out for your life . . .

Football season opened. Go, go daddy —oh was heard everywhere. Too bad they didn't do it. Need I say more? Yes I do. Forget about the Rochy game. There goes a flamingo!! No, it's only a football sailing for another touchdown. Rochy's of course . . . Down, boy, down. There's plenty for everyone. Although they didn't do too well at football, they certainly made up for it in eating and eating and eating. Won't they ever get their fill.

Watch the birdie. Shingas pictures were being taken. Since when did girls belong to B. A. C. Dig this man. Maybe school is not as bad as we thought. Teachers' conference at New Castle. And a few days later, an assembly on "Big Ideas" . . . Oh Happy Day? Report cards. No red marks though. Just all "F's". But the Bluejays soon cheered us up at another fine assembly . . . "Here comes the showboat. The fifty-three showboat." No we're not crazy, it's just the Shingas skit. "A Shingas for me in '53" was heard everywhere. You guessed it. Shingas sales had started.

At last! Nov. 11—A Holiday! But not for the band. They made up for it, though, when they won $25 in Midland.

Boy what an assembly this morning. We thought we would be half asleep but William Shudden soon woke us up with his tales of India. Elephant tails and tiger tails. The next tale we heard was the Junior Class play skit. Congrats, Juniors. Hope you have the same success on opening night. Final production, "Our Hearts were Young and Gay." Critics seal of approval. Congrats to the sophs', too, on a swell football dance. From under the queen's throne I watched dancing feet glide to heavenly strains.

For details about the Thanksgiving assembly, ask some Tri-Hi-Y member. As for me, let me at that turkey. It's a good thing I had two days to recuperate. We got back to school just as another six weeks bit the dust.

Well, basketball season came and our football jinx tagged right along. But for three nights the jinx took a rest. We won! We won! I wonder if that $10 I slipped the ref helped? All joking aside we did beat Leetsdale once and Freedom twice.

Zing! Duck! That was too close for comfort! Keep your seats, it was only Jim Lynch showing his skill at archery. Boy I'm glad my mom doesn't own a bow and arrow!! Cause, "Worry, Worry, Worry," report cards again. Some kids get A's, some kids get B's, and then —there's me. Some characters must be worried about a different thing. Fess up! Who did it? The vandalism, I mean. "Row, Row, Row your Boat." Does anyone have an extra pair of water wings? Pretty neat this swimming to class.

'Twas the week before Christmas and all through the room, not a creature was stirring
'cept Cliff with his broom.

The books in the lockers
were closed very tight,
marked, "Not to be opened,
for sixteen nights."

When down at Peaks
there rose such a clatter,
I jumped in my unit
to see what was the matter

I came to a stop
slid ten feet in snow,
while the kids down at Peaks
shouted, "Go daddy—oh."

A young hotrod driver
so lively and quick,

I knew in a moment
the cops all would kick.

Mistletoe was hung in the back booth with care,
in hopes that the girls
would soon all be there.

It's Christmas they shouted
as they danced round a chair, everyone down there
had neither worry nor care.

A Hollywood muffler
was heard on the street,
we all rushed outside
to find a rare treat.

No school till next year!
As he peeled out of sight,
Merry Christmas to all,
and to all a good night.

Here we are again. Oh well, it couldn't last forever! (Why not?) To top it off, Rochy finally beat us! Hang your head in shame. Ditto goes for the rest of the basketball games that season. Oh well, there's always baseball.

Jan. 20. What a memorable day. Yea Ike! A president could get elected every day for all we care. School got out at 11:30 and reconvened at 1:30 but who went back? Burp! Excuse me. Guess I ate (?) my lunch too fast. Ditto goes for the band banquet the following night. I'll bet I gained two pounds. Oh well, this doesn't happen every day.

Then on to the Heart Hop. Comic Valentine verses were soon written on my pages and then rewritten on cardboard plaques and pasted against the walls of the gaily decorated gym. Forgotten behind one of the plaques I carefully watched as the dancers waltzed to the strains of Vic Trola and his hot platters.

A few days later I found myself once again in the gym rooting with all my might but to no avail. Once more we found defeat at the hands of the East All Stars. "Why don't you believe me I think we should win," quoted direct from the basketball players. That seemed a pretty popular song that week. Our talent for the amateur hour was also caught crooning that tune. "It Isn't Fair." Here it is report time and "I'm Sorry" again.

The finale of our high school career was "George Washington Slept Here." It was a big hit and certainly shouldn't have been the last.

"Come to the Mardi Gras" was echoed through the halls. The Tri Hi Y out did themselves in a spectacular vision of fairy land . . . Did you dig the music at the Spring Festival too? Maybe it's just because we're seniors that it sounded so swell. The same seems to go for everything in this last hurry scurry year.

It's no April fool that we haven't any school. For six wonderful days we planned and wore our new Easter duds. Now do you believe in the Easter bunny?

"Bye, Bye Blues." I think I'm going to pass. Just got my report card and much to my surprise, I got something besides an "F". (D's show a little improvement)

Tom, Dick, and Harry were being written on my pages. I was held by a pretty Senior at the Junior-Senior Prom. This time, posing as a program, I had been able to smuggle into one of the most important dances of my life. Didn't you enjoy it too?

Now as we are coming into the home stretch, I realize all that high school means to me. May Day, Idora Park and Baccalaureate Services are just a few of the things I will never forget. Can any Senior ever forget the last assembly put on by themselves. We, the Seniors and I, got out at 10:30, free to do whatever we pleased. So what do we do? Go right back to school, natch!

The Senior dance brings down the curtain on one of the most memorable occasions of my high school career. It is our big moment and one that will last in my memory forever.

Then comes that breath-taking moment we've waited twelve years for. Our diplomas. As I glance down at my last page, I begin remembering all the fun as well as the disappointments in our last and most wonderful year.

After hearing the old Alma Mater for the last time we walk slowly up the aisles of the auditorium. Take good care of it, Juniors. We, the class of '53, wish you the best.

Cheerleaders

What team wouldn't try its hardest for a successful season with these eight lively cheerleaders to spark the boys on? At all the pep meetings and games these girls made sure the student body was behind the team. Congratulations, girls on a fine season.

Saltarelli, J. Grad, J. Rini, G. Morgan, C. Jenkins.

Two was the "charmed" number for Coach Ernie Johnson's boys this season as they won two, tied two, and lost two. Their record hardly does the team justice for although they ended with a fifty-fifty season, they outplayed their opponents in every game. Their greatest trouble was hanging on to the ball and each game lost or tied was due to a fumble. Monaca Junior High took advantage of two fumbles within the 20 and 5 yard lines and beat the Bobcats 20-13. Midland, profiting by two Beaver fumbles, downed the Bobcats in a night game at Midland.

While the Junior Bobcat line was consistently strong on both defense and offense, opening large holes in the opponents' lines, several of the players stood out for their fine team spirit. Sparking the team was Anthony Taormina at quarterback. Equally valuable to the team were Joe Rini, a consistent ground gainer; John Grad, Paul Dappenbrook, and Bob Salterelli at the halfback positions; and Charles Weyand and Tom Clark, the ends, playing top notch defensive ball. The team, as a whole, deserves much credit for its fine spirit whether in a win, a loss, or a tie.

Alma Mater

From thee skill and science flow
All our knowledge we thee owe
Thy maroon and gray let all men see
Dear Beaver High we bow to thee.
May each son look up to thee
In defeat or victory,
Alma Mater, we love thee
Always loyal we will be.
